Code of Conduct

Christ Church
Grammar School

We expect all Christ Church Grammar School boys to understand and promote the values of our School. This Code of Conduct provides a model for boys striving to achieve their best, while supporting the successes of their peers, understanding their responsibilities and growing to be the best version of themselves.

Respect

- We think about how our words and behaviour can affect others
- We value our peers and encourage them to try their best
- We are proud of our School
- We care for the environment
- We value the ideas of our peers
- We take pride in our school and our uniform
- We respect the rights of all members of the school community
- We understand we are all part of a school community and we all have the right to participate, belong and achieve our best

Integrity

- We consider 'what is right' before we act
- We remember to be a good example to others
- We keep our classroom and school neat, safe and tidy
- We let our teacher know if something is damaged
- We act with honesty even when no one is looking
- We speak up if we see someone being treated unfairly
- We let an adult know if someone is doing the wrong thing

Excellence

- We learn from our mistakes
- We try to do our best at all times
- We take risks with our learning
- We always try to do what we think is right
- We come to school ready to learn
- We set goals and work with others to achieve them
- We listen to and act on feedback from our teachers

Care and Compassion

- We thank others and appreciate efforts
- We volunteer to help others
- We show gratitude
- We feel safe and secure in a caring and supportive learning environment
- We aim to set a good example for others
- We think about the words we use and the way we act and how this affects others
- We value our self and others for individuality, including race, gender, cultural background, physical and intellectual diversity
- We understand that we learn different things from different people
