Building Good Men Awards – Term 3 Week 8

Class	Name	Awarded for
6JJ	Theo Porter	Theo, your consistent work ethic, intrinsic motivation, and kind nature are assets to our class. We appreciate how hard you work each day. You are a terrific role model to your peers. Congratulations and thank you!
6JJ	Ewan Robertson	Thank you, Ewan, for your improved focus and terrific application in class. You are working hard, asking questions if unsure and engaging thoroughly in all our activities. Keep up these wonderful efforts!
6RB	Asher Lee	Asher has shown great dedication to his learning this term which has resulted in him achieving some excellent results in recent tests. I look forward to his continued progress and carrying on this momentum for the remainder of the year.
6RB	Viren Wirasinha	Viren consistently demonstrates the school values in everything he does. His commitment, respect and kindness set a wonderful example for others. Keep up the great work, Viren.
6RG	Xavier Shakibaie	Xavier is to be commended for his outstanding effort on his Paper Bag story. He demonstrated a clear and confident speech, maintaining excellent eye contact with his audience throughout. His pronunciation was impeccable, making his presentation both engaging and easy to follow. Well done.
6SO	Hugo Billing	Hugo should be very proud of his efforts and dedication in completing many complex tasks and large projects this term. A fine effort. Well done, Hugo. Keep up the great work.
6SO	Samuel Fahimian	Samuel has worked hard this term to complete large projects to the very best of his ability, independently and within a team. He should be very proud of his efforts! Well done.
5GM	Ethan Hopkins	Your enthusiasm for Digital Technologies is remarkable, Ethan. Your ability to grasp and apply complex concepts truly sets you apart. The detailed bird's-eye architectural drawing you created for your sea container building is a testament to your exceptional skills. Keep inspiring others with your knowledge and passion!
5JB	Rory Adam	Rory is to be commended for his improved organisation and effort at school. He has been managing his time effectively and staying on top of tasks with fewer reminders. His extra effort and positivity have enhanced his learning and I hope he keeps up this wonderful attitude. Well done, Rory.
5JB	Alston Sun	Alston should be congratulated for his effort and enthusiasm during our lessons. He has shown an increase in his understanding and output, especially in our writing lessons. Alston has also been applying this in other subjects and encourages other students around him to do the same. Well done, Alston.
5SH	Vishnu Vyhunthan	Vishnu, you are a considerate and caring class member who is always willing to lend a hand. You approach all learning tasks with a positive attitude and have striven for excellence in a range of different areas. Additionally, your warm nature makes you a friend to many in 5SH. You are a true role model for others. Well done.
5SH	George Weber	George, it has been wonderful to see the diligent manner in which you have approached your academic work this term. In addition, you have shown a willingness to take on feedback and it has shown in your learning. Furthermore, you add to a positive classroom climate with a well-timed sense of humour and willingness to add personal insight into class discussions.
5SM	Jack Judges	Jack is to be congratulated on his recent Mint Tin Book Review project. The final product was detailed and well researched, demonstrating a thorough understanding of the text. Jack has an outstanding work ethic whereby he pushes himself to improve his results in all learning areas and will often seek advice on steps for further improvement. Well done.
5SM	Hudson Stott	Hudson has impressed us all with his outstanding leadership as a Class Captain for Term 3. He consistently demonstrates initiative in the classroom and empathy for his peers when a helping hand or listening ear is required. Additionally, Hudson is a consistent worker who always keeps pace with the class activities. Well done.
